

MEMORANDUM

March 7, 2012

TO : ALL PAGCOR REGISTERED SUPPLIERS

FROM : THE OFFICER-IN-CHARGE
PROCUREMENT DEPARTMENT

SUBJECT : REVENUE MEMORANDUM CIRCULAR NO. 8-2012

Please be advised that the Bureau of Internal Revenue (BIR) recently issued Revenue Memorandum Circular No. 8-2012, a copy of which is attached for your reference, affirming with finality, among others, PAGCOR's exemption from the Value-Added Tax (VAT).

In view thereof, PAGCOR is already constrained from accepting VAT-inclusive offers. With our current mandate to ensure that PAGCOR's transactions are VAT exclusive and zero-rated, we shall also now expect your invoices/official receipts to be VAT Zero-rated. We have likewise attached a copy of the Prescribing Guidelines and Procedures in the Processing of Applications for Zero-Rating of Effectively Zero-Rated Transactions for Value-Added Tax Purposes for your guidance.

To give ample time for your applications for VAT zero-rating, we shall be strictly implementing the acceptance of VAT Zero-rate invoices/official receipts effective the transactions from May 1, 2012 onwards.

For further queries and comments on these issues, please do not hesitate to send a written correspondence to the undersigned.

We look forward to a continued fruitful business relationship with all of you.

Thank you.

REVENUE MEMORANDUM CIRCULAR NO. 8-2012

Subject: Circularization of the relevant excerpts from the En Banc Supreme Court Decision in the case of Philippine Amusement and Gaming Corporation (PAGCOR) vs. The Bureau of Internal Revenue, represented herein by Hon. Jose Mario Buñag, in his official capacity as Commissioner of Internal Revenue, public respondent, JOHN DOE and JANE DOE, who are persons acting for, in behalf, or under the authority of Respondent, public and private respondents, G.R. No. 172087 dated March 15, 2011, on excluding PAGCOR from exemption from corporate Income Tax and the declaration of nullity of the pertinent provisions of Revenue Regulations No. 16-2005 relative to the imposition of 10% VAT on PAGCOR; and subsequently, the En Banc Court Resolution dated May 31, 2011 denying with finality the relevant motions for partial reconsideration thereto.

To: All Internal Revenue Officials and Employees Concerned

For the information and guidance of all internal revenue officials and employees concerned, quoted hereunder is the relevant portion of the En Banc Supreme Court Decision in the case of Philippine Amusement and Gaming Corporation (PAGCOR) vs. The Bureau of Internal Revenue, represented herein by Hon. Jose Mario Buñag, in his official capacity as Commissioner of Internal Revenue, G.R. No. 172087 dated March 15, 2011, concerning the liability of PAGCOR to corporate Income Tax and the revocation of the pertinent provisions of Revenue Regulations No. 16-2005 relative to the imposition of 10% VAT on PAGCOR:

"xxx xxx xxx

Taxation is the rule and exemption is the exception. The burden of proof rests upon the party claiming exemption to prove that it is, in fact, covered by the exemption so claimed. As a rule, tax exemptions are construed strongly against the claimant. Exemptions must be shown to exist clearly and categorically, and supported by clear legal provision.

In this case, PAGCOR failed to prove that it is still exempt from the payment of corporate income tax, considering that Section 1 of R.A. No. 9337 amended Section 27 (c) of the National Internal Revenue Code of 1997 by omitting PAGCOR from the exemption. The legislative intent, as shown by the discussions in the Bicameral Conference Meeting, is to require PAGCOR to pay corporate income tax; hence, the omission or removal of PAGCOR from exemption from the payment of corporate income tax. It is a basic precept of statutory construction that the express mention of one person, thing, act, or consequence excludes all others as expressed in the familiar maxim expressio unius est exclusio alterius. Thus, the express mention of the GOCCs exempted from payment of corporate income tax excludes all others. Not being excepted, petitioner PAGCOR must be regarded as coming within the purview of the general rule that GOCCs shall pay corporate income tax, expressed in the maxim: exceptio firmat regulam in casibus non exceptis.

PAGCOR cannot find support in the equal protection clause of the Constitution, as the legislative records of the Bicameral Conference Meeting dated October 27, 1997, of the Committee on Ways and Means, show that PAGCOR's exemption from payment of corporate income tax, as provided in Section 27 (c) of R.A. No. 8424, or the National Internal Revenue Code of 1997, was not made pursuant to a valid classification based on substantial distinctions and the other requirements of a reasonable classification by legislative bodies, so that the law may operate only on some, and not all, without violating the equal protection clause. The legislative records show that the basis of the grant of exemption to PAGCOR from corporate income tax was PAGCOR's own request to be exempted.

It is settled rule that in case of discrepancy between the basic law and a rule or regulation issued to implement said law, the basic law prevails, because the said rule or regulation cannot go beyond the terms and provisions of the basic law. 43 RR No. 16-2005, therefore, cannot go beyond the provisions of R.A. No. 9337. Since PAGCOR is exempt from VAT under R.A. No. 9337, the BIR exceeded its authority in subjecting PAGCOR to 10% VAT under RR No. 16-2005; hence, the said regulatory provision is hereby nullified.

WHEREFORE, the petition is PARTLY GRANTED. Section 1 of Republic Act No. 9337, amending Section 27 (c) of the National Internal Revenue Code of 1997, by excluding petitioner Philippine Amusement and Gaming Corporation from the enumeration of government-owned and controlled corporations exempted from corporate income tax is valid and constitutional, while BIR Revenue Regulations No. 16-2005 insofar as it subjects PAGCOR to 10% VAT is null and void for being contrary to the National Internal Revenue Code of 1997, as amended by Republic Act No. 9337." (Underscoring provided)

Subsequently, we quote the Court En Banc Resolution dated May 31, 2011 denying with finality motions for partial reconsideration relative to the foregoing :

"G.R. No. 172087 (Philippine Amusement and Gaming Corporation [PAGCOR] vs. Bureau of Internal Revenue, et al.) – Acting on the separate Motions for Partial Reconsideration of the Decision March 15, 2011 filed by counsel for Bureau of Internal Revenue and the Office of the Government Corporate Counsel for PAGCOR, the Court Resolved to DENY WITH FINALITY the said motions for partial reconsideration, as the basic issues raised therein have been passed upon by this Court and no substantial arguments were presented to warrant the reversal of the questioned Decision."

All revenue officials and employees are enjoined to give this Circular as wide publicity as possible.

In case of partial compliance, the applicant shall be informed of the missing or additional requirements.

4. The Application for VAT Zero-Rate shall be accomplished and filed by the seller (not by the purchaser of goods, properties and/or services) to cover transactions qualified for effective zero-rating. The Application for VAT Zero-Rate shall be filed only by VAT-registered sellers to cover sale of goods, properties or services to qualified buyers certified or endorsed, whenever necessary, by the concerned government regulatory agency.
5. The Application for VAT Zero-Rate shall be processed and approved/disapproved within fifteen (15) working days from receipt of the application with complete supporting documents. If there are legal issues involved in an application, the same shall be referred to the Law Division/VAT Review Committee for legal interpretation of vague provisions of the law and the taxpayer shall be accordingly informed of the status of its application. Processing shall be made only upon receipt of the legal opinion from the said Office. The VAT Review Committee shall transmit the necessary legal opinion to the AITEID within thirty (30) days from receipt of referral. For disapproved applications, the reason/s for the denial shall be clearly stated in the application.

Accordingly, transactions falling under the provisions of Sections 106 (A)(2)(a)(1),(2), and (4); 106(A)(2)(b); and 108(B)(1),(2),(6) and (7) of the NIRC which are automatically considered as zero-rated shall not be covered by this Order.
 8. The approval of Applications for VAT Zero-Rate shall be given prospective effect. All approved Applications for VAT Zero-Rate shall take effect on the date the application was received by the AITEID and in no case shall it be given retroactive effect.
 9. The approved Application for VAT Zero-Rate shall be valid until December 31 of the year of application and renewable every year thereafter. The application for renewal shall be filed on or before the last working day of December of each year. For applications filed on or after the first working day of January, the effectivity date thereof shall be reckoned on the date of its actual receipt. However, for applications for renewal filed by suppliers of qualified exporters who were not included in the first masterlist submitted by concerned regulatory agencies, the effectivity date of approval shall be reckoned on the date of official endorsement by the said regulatory agency or the date of receipt of application, whichever comes later.
 10. The approved Application for VAT Zero-Rate shall be revoked in the event that the taxpayer-applicant was found to have committed misrepresentations on the application or the exporter was found to have been erroneously endorsed for VAT zero-rating.
